FEMALE MEDICAL COLLEGE.

A Philadelphia letter writer states that the female medical college in that city is progressing as satisfactorily as any friend to the rights of women could possibly desire; and all that is now wanted to complete the good work is the establishment of a Female Theological Seminary and a Female Law School. If women from the force of circumstances, must work for a livelihood, why should they be debarred from the liberal professions, and compelled to dwell among pots, or to make beds, or to measure out calico, or to work in factories, or to cook, wash, scrub darn and sew? Blessings on Miss Blackwell for the practical idea; a social revolution is about to take place. In less than three years, something less than three hundred lovely and loveable girls, with straw bonnets, low neck dresses, and gaiter boots, (if the fashions don't change in the meantime,) will be driving about the streets of Philadelphia in their gigs, killing and curing according to the good old orthodox, allopathic system. Woman, lovely woman, is the only proper attendant for the sick-room, and if we are to be bled or physicked to death, let it be done with sweet smiles and gentle hands. With a young, blooming, blushing physician to feel your pulse with her round, tapering fingers, or to put her soft, warm, plump hand on your aching head, who wouldn't be sick? The danger is that Philadelphia will become frightfully unhealthy the moment these bewitching spinsters matriculate.

☞ Another valuable contribution to a ship's furniture has been made by the Rev. E. Berthoun, of Fareham, England, in the shape of a perpetual log, which is likely to become not only a favorite, but will hereafter be considered almost an essential to her safety. We propose in an early number to describe it, at present it being before the Royal Society. Unlike Massey's or Walker's, it has no machinery to get out of order, or require repair, and being (with the exception of about three inches) all inside the ship, is free from accident. It consist of a small tube in which the pressure of water occasioned by the way of the ship, acting on a column of mercury, indicates the velocity of sailing. The index, which very much resembles in size and appearance a common thermometer, may be fitted to hang in the captain's cabin, or any other part of the ship, being at once ornamental and useful. We understand it is being fitted in H.M.S. Dauntless, and we fully anticipate every ship afloat being hereafter supplied with it. It not only indicates the velocity, but also the lee-way, should the vessel be sailing before the wind; and is highly creditable both to the judgment and good taste of the inventor. [Nautical Magazine.

ONLY HALF-WAY.—The Sultan is willing to make almost any improvements in civilization, provided they do not interfere with the internal arrangements of his seraglio The old sinner.

☞ A letter from Colotlan, in Mexico, on 23d June last, states that while the cholera was raging at that place, an image of St. Nicholas Tolentino had been observed to shed tears, which were very carefully wiped away with cotton, and this latter was distributed as a precious relic to ladies and others. The people said that after the Saint had shed tears, the doing of which was evidently an act of intercession, the cholera began to diminish in violence, and in a few days had almost entirely disappeared. It is added, that a full and formal account was transmitted of this mirac'e to the Bishop of Guadalajara, accompanied by all the proofs and attestations, so as to give the relation the dignity of an official act, one not to be contradicted or questioned hereafter. The disappearance of the cholera may be believed without recourse to the intervention of a Saint. As to the miracle, every one can think as he pleases, as folks do about the the Rochester Ghost.

Steam to Australasia.—There seems little doubt but that communication by steam will now shortly be established. The London correspondent of the Sydney Herald remarks: 'I have heard, and I am strongly inclined to believe, that an intimate tripartite alliance has been formed between the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, and the New Zealand Company. I have heard that the last will use all its power and influence to get the Central American as the established route. Thus New Zealand would get first served—South Australia last. If you are convinced by the reasoning of those who vre in favor of the Panama route, well and good, but it is right you should have a hint that the 'New Zealand interest' is busying itself in the matter, and that the convenience of that settlement will, beyond all doubt, occupy the first consideration.'

☞ A military officer being at sea in a dreadful storm, his lady was sitting in the cabin near him, and filled with alarms for the safety of the vessel, was so surprised at his composure and serenity, that she cried out:

"My dear, you are not afraid? How is it possible you can be so calm in such a dreadful storm?"

He arose from his chair lashed to the deck, supporting himself by a pillar of the bed place, he drew his sword and pointed it to the breast of his wife, and exclaimed. "Are you not afraid?"

She instantly replied, "No."

"Why!" said the officer.

"Because," rejoined the lady, "I know this sword is in the hand of my husband; and he loves me too well to hurt me."

"Then," said he, "remember, I know in whom I believe, and that He holds the winds in His fists, and the water in the hollow of His hands."

Of all self acknowledged puppies, the young man who speaks lightly of female character and female virtue deserves the highest place in the congregation of moral lepers. There is no more certain indication of a weak brain or rotten heart, than the tongue that would disparage female virtue—which would forget its mother or sister in casting its foul venom upon purity which it can never hope to attain.

Modesty is one of the leading characteristics of great minds. Newton, whose discoveries filled the world, and revolutionized the whole empire of science, was one of the most unassuming of men. The mighty intellect and vast achievements of Laplace only rendered him more conscious of his own ignorance; so true it is that the more men know, the less do they think of themselves.

A Washington correspondent states that the expenses of carrying on the Government of Oregon, exclusive of Indian affairs, is $3,500.

KLAMATH GOLD MINES, River and Town.—One of the most extensive fields for speculation at present in California.

The attention of the public is now called to this very important part of California. The town of Klamath is situated on the bank and at the vicinity of the mouth of a river, upon the numerous tributaries of which the most productive and extensive gold mines have been discovered of any now in existence in California. The Harbor (at the upper end of which this beautiful town site is situated) is both commodious and secure, and possesses the very superior advantage over all the other ports upon the coast between the Columbia river and San Francisco of a perfectly safe entrance. The river is a magnificent stream and navigable by steamers, according to the opinion of steamboat captains and others in every way competent to judge of the matter, at least 70 miles up; at, and even below which point, these very rich gold mines commence. Merchants and capitalists who are desirous of realizing a handsome profit upon their goods and an enormous return for their capital cannot enter into a better speculation or make a more safe investment of their means in any part of California, from the fact that there are at present about 2000 miners at work upon this river and its tributaries; and there is every reason to believe, from the numerous satisfactory statements of the miners, relative to their success during the last year, that next year there will be many times the number. The immediate rush to these mines from all parts will be immense, and in fact almost unprecedented; and this town, which may be said to be adjacent, in consequence of the water communication into the very heart of them, must and will undoubtedly be insured a speedy and almost magic growth, and by this time next year will be a very respectable rival to (if not totally eclipsing,) Sacramento and Stockton. Miners who have, during the last summer expended to such a deplorable extent their useless toil and labor in the southern mines, and have actually lost money in the place of making it, by the unsuccessful and numerous damming operations, and the scarcity of gold there, are strongly recommended to turn their attention to these mines, as the average amount dug last year, putting it at an infinitely lower estimate than from the statements of the miners we would be warranted in putting it, one ounce per day to the man. This alone is sufficient to justify the opinion that there is ample room for more, and when it is taken into consideration that not over one-tenth part of the gold region has as yet been explored, the certainty of room is rendered beyond doubt. The enormous tax upon the miners for packing of provisions will next year be effectually obviated by the aid of water communication, which extends into the very heart of the mines. Goods can be taken from the deck of steamers by the miners in the place of the pack-saddle of the mule, and provisions now furnished at an expense of $1 50 for the mere packing, can be afforded for ten cents, thus enabling the miner to lay by the fruits of their labor, instead of expending so great a quota for subsistence. To persons wishing to invest capital to an advantage in town lots, an almost unparalleled money making speculation is now open; as lots at the present time can be procured at a comparatively low figure, and the price that they will be disposed of next spring will be high. Arrangements have been made for a steamer to ply between the town and the mines, which will warrant to miners the supply of provisions forthwith.

A map of the town and river can be seen at Messrs. Shultz & Palmer's, foot of Jackson street; at Bullett & Patrick's, corner of Jackson and Sansome streets; and at Worthington, Beale & Bunting's.

IMPORTANT FROM ABOVE!

Excitement in El Dorado County—Threatened Indian Hostilities.

Hawley & Co. furnished us with Sacramento papers of yesterday.

From the Transcript we learn that the Indians have threatened an invasion of El Dorado county. Meetings have been held in Culoma, Weberville, Placerville, Ringgold, and Diamond Springs, and the most intense excitement prevails in that section of the county.

G. G. Blodget, Esq., has been sent down as a messenger to the Governor, to communicate the condition of things, and the fears of the people, and to ask for aid from the State authorities.

It seems that a short time since, word was sent to Mr. Harris, a gentleman very much liked by the Indians, and who possesses much influence among them, informing him he had better leave town within three days, for that the Indians owned the whole country around to within three miles of Sutter's Fort, and that they intended to sack the towns and burn them.

A gentleman by the name of Rosencram, with eight others, went out a day or two since on the Macosumnes for the purpose of prospecting; and as R. and one other were returning to where their dinner was cooking, the leader of the Indians, armed with a gun and bow and arrows, came up, followed almost immediately by a second Indian, and in broken English demanded their arms. Rosencram and his companion, instead of giving them up, sprang for them, and almost immediately two or three hundred armed Indians came out from their coverts. The two men ran for their lives, and succeeded, it seems, in making their escape. The other seven have not been heard from.

Three men have been found near Weberville, horribly mangled, and the remains of two others, who, from the buttons, &c., that were found near, were supposed to be Americans. The bodies of the last two had been recently burned; the bones were charred.

The Indians are said to be aided by foreigners—to have sent their families into the mountains, and to be scattered principally from the Carson valley along the route over the summit as far as Ringgold, the outpost town. They are also said to be well mounted and armed.

Placerville, Ringgold and Weberville have each a picked guard of 25 men. These towns have also raisid a force of 50 men each, who are placed under the command of Sheriff Rogers.

While the meeting was going on at Placerville, two immigrants, a man and a woman, came into town, both of whom were wounded with arrows. They were enabled to escape with their lives on account of the Indians stopping to plunder their baggage Another person came in about the same time, badly wounded in the arm with a ball.

The intelligence has been communicated to the Governor, and an order was to have been sent up early Friday morning to Sheriff Rogers to take the responsibility and keep the Indians at bay an the trail open until hereceives further orders.

THE CHOLERA. -- A gentleman whose practice has called him to various cholera patients in Sacramento, informs the Times that he has not seen or heard of a single case where the patient had not been suffering from the diarrhœa for several days prior to the attack.

THE MURDER TRIALS.—The squatters on trial before Judge Hopkins, at Sacramento, for murder, have moved for a change of venue. The motion was taken under advisement by the Court.

BEAR MEAT.—The Sacramento papers say that bear meat is plenty in that city. Where is our bear killer?

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY—Wm. J. Sherwood will sell at 11 o'clock this morning, the cargo of ship "Amity Hall." See advertisement.

...ject ...on ot... ...within the past six months. In our attendance at the most of these churches, we have always found our time well repaid. We have listened with much interest and profit to the sermons of Rev. Dr. Boring, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which worships every Sabbath, in the District Court Room. Dr. B., to an intimate knowledge of the sacred Scriptures, appears to join a profound and practical acquaintance with the human heart. And without this last, we hold it that all preaching is in vain. A man can say nothing instructive to us unless he bring it like "new treasure" out of the divine oracles, which few young speakers can do; or like "old" out of the depths with which his own experimental acquaintance with life alone can furnish him; and this is altogether beyond the reach of a novice to do. Give us both united, and the words of him whom who possesses them, like the words of wisdom, are "sweet" to the soul,—"yea, sweeter than honey and the honey-comb."

THE VOLUNTEER'S VISIT.—The Common Council of Sacramento held a special meeting on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of considering the bills presented for the expenses of the California Guards on their visit to Sacramento city. A committee from the Guards were in attendance, and presented a statement showing the actual expense incurred by them, and exposing as a fraud, the excess which has been demanded of the city by the liquor dealers and hotel keepers. The official statement made by the Guards vindicate the gentlemanly officers and members of that corps from the insinuations which have been thrown out by members of the Sacramento Common Council. After a liberal and even excessive allowance of drinks per man, the entire bill only foots up at $1,541 and the probability is, that it was under rather than over this amount. We are glad that the Sacramento City Council manifest a disposition to do justice to the patriotism and good feeling which prompted the action of the Guards on the occasion referred to.

CALIFORNIA PRESSES.—We yesterday called to see the first printing presses of any size manufactured in California. They were made by Mr Wm. Dunn, corner of Ohio and Pacific streets, one of the most finished and experienced mechanics in the State. The presses contain the latest improvements, and work with surprising ease and facility. They are now ready for sale, and are every way desirable for printing business.

This is a new feature in California mechanism. The manufacture of printing presses has hitherto been confined to the larger cities of the Atlantic States, and scarcely any others are in use throughout the entire Union. It remained for California to break ground in this important and useful branch of mechanism.

VAMOSING THE RANCH.—Yesterday was a busy day on the plaza. The Street Commissioner went about offering lumber, wagons, apple stands and every thing else that came in his way, for sale at public auction, in accordance with his notice, and the owners finding him in downright earnest about the business, made haste to remove their rubbish with as little delay as possible. One more such effort and the plaza will be cleared. But for this preparatory proceeding, there would hardly have been room for the speaker alone on Tuesday next, to say nothing of the thousands who will congregate to listen to him.

ROBBERY.—Some rascal entered the premises of Mrs. Priscilla Carswell, in Sacramento, on Tuesday night last, and stole a trunk, marked "S. A., Cal.", in white paint, containing upwards of $5,000 in dust, American coin and doubloons, and a few specimens, together with a bracelet, (Odd Fellows link, and marked in the links "J. W. W. S. A. A.",) one gold locket, chains and ear-rings, and a quantity of female wearing apparel. A reward of $1,000 is offered for the recovery of the property.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.—A few days since, in a suit at Sacramento, a judgment was rendered in a suit for baggage, which had been stored, and which was sold to pay storage. The defendants appealed, but the judgment was affirmed by the higher Court. This decision is of importance, as settling the rights of individuals leaving baggage in store.

BOBBING FOR RATS.—The Times intimates that a "grave and reverend Senator" from this city, and another from the San Joaquin, were seen in Sacramento a few evenings since, delightedly angling for rats!

HAD HIS POCKET PICKED.—Mr. D. Murray, of Sacramento, had his pocket picked of $300, in that city, on Wednesday, while attending the horse market.

...and that the agents ... Mail Steam Company, ... to our worthy County ...reasurer the authorship of the paragraphs in the News, touching the seizure and advertised sale of the steamer Panama. We are happy to be able to say, if any should happen to have a different opinion, that the editors of this paper are in the habit of writing their own sentiments, and not drawing upon their friends for editorial aid.

We have no feelings toward the agents of the Pacific Mail Line other than those of respect; but when the question is presented to us of sustaining the laws of the State, we shall insist upon their due execution, as well upon the wealthy and powerful, as upon the poor culprit without a shilling; and indeed, if anything, the more strenuous in the former case. We trust Mr. Endicott will not therefore be held responsible for the course the Pacific News chooses to take on any matter, for he has as much as he can attend to in the fulfilment of his appropriate duties; and that he does the latter faithfully, "without fear or favor," we do most fully believe, and award credit therefor.

CITY FINANCES.—From the report made to the Common Council last evening, by Ald. Wilson, chairman of the Finance Committee, it appears that the amount of scrip issued, and receivable for taxes is $445,240 22, of which $327,880 72 have been returned to the City Treasury, leaving $117,359 50 still outstanding. A reissue of scrip has been made of $20,000, which is not receivable for taxes, making the whole outstanding balance $317,359 50. We do not look upon this last issue in any other light than as the most miserable of shinplasters, and an absolute fraud upon the public creditor. If the city refuses to take its own paper in payment of debts due, certainly it possesses a good deal of "cheek" to expect other people to touch the stuff. We believe, however, that the city can be compelled to receive its "promises to pay" from any person indebted for tax or license.

ARRIVAL OF THE ANTELOPE.—This steamer, belonging to Law's Line, came into our port last evening, for the first time. Her arrival was announced to us at an early hour by Miller & Co.'s Express, who appear determined not to be outdone by older Expresses in the delivery of early intelligence. The Antelope brings up 34 passengers, but no later intelligence. Her day of sailing for Panama is not yet announced, but she will probably be dispatched about the 5th of November. She is a new vessel, admirably fitted up for the comfort of passengers, and like all of this line, officered by gentlemen who understand their business.

NUISANCES.—We perceive that the authorities are imposing fines upon some of our hotel and restaurant keepers for creating nuisances, by throwing offal into the streets and back yards. This is right. There is a stench around the kitchens of some of these places, that is perfectly insufferable, and furnishes more cholera food than all other nuisances combined. We trust the proper officers will be vigilant in presenting such places to the notice of the Recorder, whose usual promptness will cause their immediate cleansing, or inflict the consequences.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. — We learn from a friend of a melancholy accident on board the schooner Iowa, on Thursday. The mate of the vessel, Mr Whitman Wilbur, of Connecticut, was engaged in loading a gun, when the cap exploded, the entire charge passing through his body, killing him instantly. He was twenty-nine years of age, and was highly esteemed.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—The coroner of Sacramento held an inquest on the body of David B. McCune, of Jefferson county, Wisconsin, and rendered a verdict that he came to his death from cholera, brought on by exposure in sleeping out in the night air.

The Rhode Island Legislature adjourned without acting on the bill to restore to Governor Dorr his civil rights.

FIRE IN SAN JOSE.

Correspondence of the Pacific News.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 24.

Our usually quiet city was startled this evening, about eight o'clock, by the cry of fire, which was found to proceed from a wooden building on Market street, north of Santa Clara, and owing to the entire absence of anything like a fire organization, or of any apparatus, even as much as a bucket or hook, in a short time some seven or eight buildings, mostly wooden, were consumed, causing a loss of about $15,090. I regret to state that by an explosion of gunpowder in one of the buildings, four or five individuals were considerably injured, among them Mr Brierly, the candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, who was assisting to extinguish the flames. It is to be hoped that the authorities of the city will immediately provide a suitable engine, as the combustible buildings of which the town is mostly built, invite a serious conflagration. Q.

GREGORY'S EXPRESS.—The N. Y. Universe says:—"A reliable express is always the safest and most prompt manner of sending packages. This is especially the case with regard to California, and Gregory's Express supplies this want. This express can be relied on in all cases, as the proprietors are perfectly responsible. The writer of this, when in California, witnessed the energy and enterprise of Mr. Gregory, and has no hesitation in saying that he would prefer sending packages by his express to sending through the mails. Mr. Gregory was the first man who opened a direct communication between San Francisco and the mines, extending to Stockton, Sacramento, Marysville, and every part of California. We are glad to be able to state that the business of this Express is yielding its enteprising proprietors a handsome revenue. They deserve it."

Murdered.—We learn from Mr. Ford, who has just returned from Butte Creek, that on Wednesday last, there was a man murdered by Indians, on the West branch of Feather river, near Kellen's old trading post.

There were two brothers occupying a tent; one of them was sick, and the other out at work; they killed the latter by striking him on the head with some heavy instrument. The next morning a party of about twenty men went in pursuit of the Indians. They found them about two or three miles from the Post, in a canyon, and killed seven or eight Indians, including two or three squaws, and also wounded several others. While the party were out in pursuit, an Indian went up to the camp where there were some sick men, and shot one of them in the breast with an arrow. Some of the miners are becoming alarmed, and are leaving Butte Creek, and the neighborhood of the murder. [Marysville Herald.

The Cholera—its Progress.—Five or six cases only have been reported since our last issue. This indicates no increase and encourages the hope that with the thorough precautionary measures now on foot, and the timely attention of everybody to the recommendations as to cleanliness, clothing and diet, the malady may not assume an epidemic character. We heard of but three deaths yesterday, and they, as well as all previous ones, occurred in cases of neglected diarrhœa, or under circumstances which rendered the victim peculiarly liable to an attack. The Hospital provided for the cure of patients at the city charge, is a most convenient and suitable building near the corner of L and Second streets, where it is desired that all the unprovided sick may be removed as early as possible. Let no one be neglected. [Times, Thursday.

REPORT OF DEATHS, in the City Hospital, from October 12th to the 25th, inclusive:

Mexican child, dys. 8; 23d, Fred O'Riley, La., dys. 19; 24th, Thos. Rolen, Eng. cholera; 25th, T. O. French, U. S., cholera.

BALL FIXINGS.—While every body is preparing for the grand ball, on Tuesday evening next, the beautiful assortment of gloves and other articles of Messrs. Kelsey, Smith & Risley, in Clay street, just above Montgomery, should not be overlooked. They are "up and dressed" for every thing, whether it be "expressing" families from the States, or putting on the finishing decorations after their arrival.

Mrs. Partington says, nothing dispises her so much as to see people who profess to expect salivation, go to church without their purses, when a recollection is to be taken.

SACRILEGIOUS.—Miss Church was robbed of $5000 in Sacramento city yesterday. Just like 'em up thar.

A BIG GOLD STORY.—Our friend Taylor, of the Marysville Herald, is responsible for the last large gold story, as follows:

Gold.—We understand that the Jersey Company, working on the North Fork of Yuba river, are gathering from their claim an average of fifty pounds of gold per day.

We venture the opinion that the "North Fork of the Yuba river" has by this time received a greater accession to its gold seekers than there are grains of gold in one "fifty pounds," at least!

IMPORTANT NEWS from NICARAGUA by the steamer California.—Hon. E. G. Squier, late Minister from the Government of the United States to Central America, reports that: "In passing from one ocean to the other, by way of Nicaragua, $15 will suffice to transport a passenger across the country. Tolerable accommodations may be obtained for about $9, and one may go across in a cart for $7. The Nicaragua route is by many a mile nearer to all the ports of the United States, and the salubrity of the climate must be deemed an advantage that Panama cannot possess."

Napoleon amid the raging of a whirlwind. His last words were, 'Tete d'armee.'

Saladin, in his last illness, instead of his usual standard, ordered his shroud to be uplifted in front of his tent; and the herald who displayed his winding sheet as a flag was commanded to exclaim aloud, 'Behold! this is all which Saladin, the Vanquisher of the East, carries away of all his conquests.'

The last words of Sir Walter Scott to Lockhart were, 'Be a good man, for if you do not, you will feel it when you come here.'

The dying Wolf, hearing of the flight of the French, exclaimed 'I die contented.'

The curate of St. Sulpice asked the expiring Montesquieu. 'Sir, are you truly conscious of the greatness of God?' 'Yes,' was the answer of the departing philosopher, 'and the littleness of man.'

The heroic Lawrence, perishing amid the thunders of the engagement between the ill-fated Chesapeake and the British frigate Shannon, exclaimed 'Don't give up the ship.'

Sir Richard Grenville having fought his single ship against a large fleet, until his vessel was overwhelmed by the fearful odds and himself mortally wounded, summoned his victors to bear testimony to his good conduct, and exclaimed, 'Here die I, Richard Grenville, with a joyous and quiet mind, for I have ended my life as a true soldier ought to do, fighting for his country, Queen, religion, and honor.'

When the Marquis of Montrose was taken and condemned to die, and his head and limbs to be severed and hanged in public places in different towns, 'I wish,' he exclaimed, 'I had flesh enough to be sent to every city in Christendom, as a testimony to the cause for which I suffer.'

Sir Henry Vane, when condemned to die, exclaimed, 'Ten thousand deaths to me, ere I will stain the purity of my conscience.'

'Is there anything on earth I can do you?' said Taylor to the satirical buffoon, Dr. Wolcott. 'Give me back my youth,' was the sad reply.

'Oh, that I might live!' was the dying wish of the patriot Quincy, as he came in sight of Massachusetts, 'Oh, that I might live to render to my country one last service!'

The last words of Gen. Harrison were, as though he fancied himself addressing some official associate in the government. 'Sir, I wish you to understand the true principle of the government. I wish them carried out. I ask no more.'

'I have always done my duty. I am ready to die. My only regret is for the friends I leave behind me." These were the sublime words, indicating a mind conscious of rectitude, a spirit ignorant of fear and a heart full of affection, with which the great and good Taylor was gathered to his fathers.

GALPHINIZING IN FRANCE.

A claim of the Napoleon family against France for about fifty millions is to be prosecuted before the tribunals. When the people took the helm of government in 1792, the government property passed from the Bourbon family to the State. At the fall of Napoleon the imperial property shared the same fate. The Bourbons were installed in their properties, and the Palais Royal, which, rebaptized Palais National, had been forfeited on the death of Philippe Egalite, was restored to the younger branch. The Republic is the first to give the example of permitting former monarchs to retain all the property acquired by virtue of their former office.

Louis Philippe was owner of extensive domains in France, paid for in one way and another, out of the public moneys—beyond the property of the family of Orleans. The dowry of the Duchess of Orleans is acknowledged as one of the debts of the Republic. The two magnificent galleries of paintings in the Louvre, the Spanish and Standish galleries, have been surrendered to Louis Philippe as his private property.

.etheart along Queen street, of that city, stopped at the door of a pastry-cook's shop, and addressing his lady-love, said—

'Now, my dear, what will you take?'

She, expecting to be treated to some of the good things of the shop, modestly replied,

'I will take any thing you like.'

'Then,' said he, 'we will take a walk,' and marched past the shop.

Not long since, two men met in Cincinnati, and the following colloquy took slace:

'Smith, how was the cholera report yesterday?'

'Oh, falling off; only ten deaths.'

'Then split me if I don't go green corn and cucumbers for dinner—and, Smith, how's the report for to-day?'

'Only five deaths.'

'J-e-r-u-s-a-l-e-m! only five! I'll go a dozen peaches, some radishes, and a bustin' great watermillion to boot! Cuss me if I go without green sass any longer!'

A Norfolk farmer, not accustomed to literary composition or letter writing, having lost a new hat at a country meeting, and inquired into its possible mistaking, addressed the following grammatical note to its possessor:

'Mr. A. presents compliments to Mr. B. I have got a hat which is not his. If he have got a hat which is not yours, no doubt they are the missing one.'

A cross grained, antiquated maiden vixen went to a physician for advice.

'Madam,' said the doctor, 'it seems to me that it would do you good to have a little sun and air.'

'Oh, you abominable critter! a son and heir! Oh, dear, will somebody fan me! I will go off! The outrageous brute!—a son and heir!'

A Sale in Church.—A parson, in the course of his sermon, recently, asked,

'What is the price of earthly pleasure?'

'Seven-an'-sixpence a dozen,' said a half-asleep grocer, who was somewhat startled by the question.

'Well, I'll take the lot,' muttered a speculator, who was anything but wide-awake when he made the offer.

A son of the 'Emerald' but recently over, stated that the times were so hard in certain districts where he came from, that people did not eat at all.

'How do they live, then?' inquired a listener.

'On the remembrance of what they ate last year,' was the reply.

WHITNEY'S PACIFIC RAILROAD.

It is amusing to compare the various objections that have at different times, or by different persons at the same time, been urged against this scheme of Mr. Whitney's. Some have said that the road could never be built on account of the expense; the unsettled state of the country over which it must pass, exposing it to the depredations of Indians, &c., while others are lifting up their hands in horror at the immense fortune which Mr. Whitney will make after finishing the road! The fact is, both go to extremes. The idea is advanced that Mr. Whitney, in asking to purchase the strip of land sixty miles wide, or thirty miles on each side of the proposed road, at the price of ten cents per acre, asks too much! But the Committee of Congress, who made a careful examination of the whole subject, reported that this sum (which would amount to $7.795,-200!) was "above the present value, and far beyond what the government can in any other way expect to receive. It is then evident that on Mr. Whitney's plan, no aid from government is asked. They are not requested, as on another plan, recently projected, to loan the credit of the United States to an amount of nearly $100,000,000; no such thing. Mr. Whitney proposes to buy this strip of land, pay all that it is now worth for it, and by means of the improvement he will make upon it, to increase its value so as to make it recompense him for the improvement. THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE of California, District of the County of Santa Clara: Jose De Arnez vs. Genoveva Garcia Mangel, Emanuel Mangel and Lorenzo Geoffrey. Petition to foreclose mortgage, &c.:

Whereas, JOSE DE ARNAZ filed in this Court on the 16th day of May, 1850, his petition, showing, among other things, that on the 20th day of December, 1849, Genoveva Garcia Mangel, the wife of Emanuel Mangel, was the owner in fee of a certain house and lot in San Jose, adjoining and in the rear of the house lately occupied by Messrs. Larrain, Benitez & Co., and fronting on Garcia street, did on that day mortgage the same, with the consent of Emanuel Mangel, her husband, to said Arnaz, to secure the sum of five hundred and sixty dollars, payable four months from date: That afterwards, on or about the 15th day of January, 1850, said Emanuel Mangel and Genoveva G. Mangel executed a mortgage on the same premises to one Geoffrey, of San Francisco, for about fourteen hundred dollars; which said mortgage was falsely dated the 19th of December, 1849, with intent to defeat the prior mortgage lien on said real estate, and to cheat and defraud said petitioner out of his debt. Said petitioner prays discovery and full answer to the above facts, that said mortgage to Geoffrey be set aside as fraudulent, and that said premises be sold to pay petitioners's mortgage, and for general relief.

And it being proved by affidavit to the satisfaction of this Court that Emanuel Mangel is a non-resident of this State, notice is hereby given to Emanuel Mangel to be and appear before the Honorable Court of the Third Judicial District, for the County of Santa Clara, on the fourth Monday of December, 1850, at the court house in San Jose, then and there to answer said petition, or, in default thereof, the allegation therein contained will be heard in your absence and decreed accordingly.

Given under my hand and private seal, there being no seal of office yet provided at this office, this 24th of May, A. D. 1850.
